Indefinite. For Vancouver: Indefinite.

Evening Bulletin, Est. 1882, No. 5992 Hawaiian Star, Vol. XXII, No. 7032

10 PAGES. -HONOLULU, TERRITORY OF HAWAII, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1914.-10 PAGES.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Warring Powers Call On U. S. For Supp

Battle Tide Ebbs And Flows In Bloodiest EACH SIDE CLAIMS SUCCESSES; SEA AND LAND

TEUTONS REINFORCED ON

FRANCE DECLARES GENERAL POSITIONS OF ALLIES SUC-CESSFULLY MAINTAINED, DESPITE TREMENDOUS FURY OF GERMAN ATTACKS-LITTLE NEW TODAY FROM THE RUSSIAN BORDER - GERMAN CRUISER KARLSRUHE DOES GREAT DAMAGE TO BRITISH SHIPPING IN ATLANTIC -FRENCH WARSHIPS AID BRITISH IN BOMBARDMENT OFF BELGIAN COAST-KAISER'S NEPHEW ANNOUNCED KILLED IN BATTLE-FRENCH CRUISER DAMAGED IN COLLISION-PORTUGUESE MONARCHISTS ATTEMPT RE-VOLT—KIEL SHIPYARDS BUILDING ARMORED LIGHTERS, INDICATING MOVE OF GERMAN FLEET IS IMMINENT

[Associated Press Servi ce by Federal Wireless] LONDON, England, Oct. 23 .- A Reuter's despatch from Paris says that the Germans have reinforced their battle-line troops and are attacking the French right with renewed vigor. The battle now is swaying backward and forward, both sides gaining temporary victories, to be succeeded by reverses. Some French warships are aiding the British monitors in the fighting on the Allies' left.

he fighting of the great armies is the bloodiest yet recorded in this war of tremendous fatalities.

GRAIN AND FLOUR BOUGHT UP TO MEET NEEDS OF EUROPE

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 23 .- The demand of the European powers for supplies has resulted in grain buyers cleaning out the local market. Milled flour is moving to Europe direct in large quantities.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 23 .- The grain exports, stimulated by the war demand, are reaching huge amounts. The largest volume of business is now being done that has been transacted since the outbreak of the war and the first intense excitement.

Berlin Says Successes of Note Being Gained in Battle Now Raging

BERLIN, Germany, Oct. 23 .- Official, via Amsterdam and London.-On the river Yser yesterday the German forces

West of Lille the Germans took several villages, while the remainder of the western front was quiet.

In the eastern war zone the Russians have been repulsed in an attack made near Augustowo. Nothing definite is materializing in the southeastern

French Feel Fresh German Attack But Say Positions Are Maintained

PARIS, France, Oct. 23 .- An official announcement today from the French war office says:

"On our left very considerable German forces continue to the sea and the canal of La Bassee.

maintained and the attacking forces successfully driven back. The Allies have given ground at some points and gained ground

'The enemy is also very active near Arras and on the river Somme. North and south of this river we have advanced, particularly near Rosieres. Near Verdun and Point-a-Mousson there are some partial successes.

"Elsewhere there is nothing to report.

"Summing up the situation, the enemy appears to be undertaking a new effort along the greater part of the front, particularly in Belgium, with new corps composed of very young and middle-aged soldiers who have been newly-drilled."

Prussian Diet Votes Huge War Taxes Without Dissent

BERLIN, Germany, Oct. 23 .- The Prussian Diet unanimously voted today $375,000,000 war taxes. The Socialists joined unanimously in the vote.

HOHENZOLLERNS ON THE FIRING LINE

Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany and his half-dozen sons, all of whom are reported to be actively participating in the war. Several of the sons have been reported as wounded in battle.

QUICK MOVE BY GERMAN FLEET FORESHADOWED IN BUILDING OF LIGHTERS

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless.] COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Oct. 23 .- The German shipbuilding yards at Kiel are constructing 30 armored lighters, each with a capacity for carrying 500 men and of making a speed of nine miles an hour.

TELLS OF TEUT

The following cablegram has been received by the German consulate "Off Belgian coast one British destroyer disabled by shellfire of field artillery.

"One stranded Scotland. Two thousand British goldiers with machine guns taken prisoners near Lille, decision there imminent. "Emden for third time sunk five British steamers, one dredger off

"British cruisers Arethusa, Fearless and destroyers only saved last moment by dreadnought-cruisers.

Cable received by German Consul Georg Rodiek later today says: German Consut, Honolulu.

"Cruiser Karlsruhe sunk thirteen merchant vessels Atlantic. Steamer Crefeld landed crews Teneriffe. Austrians occupy Czernowitz. "Germans advance Yeer canal, South Dixmude, west" Lille.

German Cruiser Karlsruhe Deals Destruction to British Shipping

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless.] TENERIFFE, Canary Islands, Oct. 23.—The German steamer Crefeld, carrying the crews of the British vesmake very violent attacks throughout the entire region between sels Strathroy, Mapleleaf, Highland Hope, Indrani, Rio Iguasso, Fran Niceto, Maria De Larriana, Cervantes, Cornish "Generally speaking, the positions of the Allies have been City, Pruth, Condor and Lyn Rowan, have arrived here bringing news of the exploits of the German cruiser Karlsruhe, which is operating against the merchantmen of nations with whom Germany is at war. The Karlsruhe is cruising in the Atlantic.

Nephew of Kaiser Reported Killed in Battle October 12 yet failed to materialize. On board the German merchantmen which now

LONDON, England, Oct. 23.—It is officially announced at Prince Maximilian of Hesse, son of the Kaiser's youngest the bottom of the China sea for many weeks. This fighting unit is stated to materialize. On board the German merchantmen which now seek a haven at Honolulu the officers declare that the Kongo has been at the bottom of the China sea for many weeks. This fighting unit is stated to materialize. On board the German merchantmen which now seek a haven at Honolulu the officers declare that the Kongo has been at the bottom of the China sea for many weeks. This fighting unit is stated to materialize. On board the German merchantmen which now seek a haven at Honolulu the officers declare that the Kongo has been at the bottom of the China sea for many weeks. This fighting unit is stated to materialize. On board the German merchantmen which now seek a haven at Honolulu the officers declare that the Kongo has been at the bottom of the China sea for many weeks. This fighting unit is stated to materialize. On board the German merchantmen which now seek a haven at Honolulu the officers declare that the Kongo has been at the bottom of the China sea for many weeks. This fighting unit is stated to materialize. On board the German merchantmen which now seek a haven at Honolulu the officers declare that the Kongo has been at the bottom of the China sea for many weeks. This fighting unit is stated to materialize. On board the German merchantmen which now seek a haven at Honolulu the officers declared the China sea for many weeks. This fighting unit is stated to materialize. On board the German merchantmen which now seek a haven at Honolulu the officers declared the China sea for many weeks. sister, who was Princess Margaret, was killed near Mont Descat have encountered a mine while cruisin the fighting on October 12. His father is Prince Frederick in the fighting on October 12. His father is Prince Frederick Charles of Hesse.

Small Garrison is Left at Antwerp

ROTTERDAM, Netherlands, Oct. 23.—The westward movement of the German soldiers who have been in Antwerp has left only a few hundred to garrison the city.

In the fighting on October 12. His father is Prince Frederick ing 600 miles off the Kiaochau peningula and met total destruction with a great loss of men.

Collier Steams Away.

The Hittori Maru, the little Japanese freighter which yesterday was hauled alongside the big battleship Hizen while about 1000 tons of coal were transferred by means of canvas sacks, left its consort behind at dusk last evening. Today nothing was seen islation, repeal of the toil anapution of the first last evening. Today nothing was seen islation, repeal of the toil anapution of the first last evening. Today nothing was seen islation, repeal of the toil anapution of the first last evening. Today nothing was seen in the history of the nation. The bistory of the nation. The bistory of the nation. The work, including that of the special session for tariff reform and income tax provisions, represents the legislative achievement of the first last and were transferred by means of canvas sacks, left its consort behind at dusk last evening. Today nothing was seen islation, repeal of the toil anapution of the first last evening is the little Japanese in the history of the nation. The work in the little Japanese in the history of the nation.

The Hittori Maru, the little Japanese in the history of the nation.

The work is a last an expectation of th

Additional A. P. News on Page 3

Work Proceeds on German Cruiser Geier: Phantom Fleet is Reported From Kahuku

Coaled and prepared to go into in stant action, the Japanese battleship Hizen, no longer attended by its collier, was still prominent upon the horizon at daylight this morning as it the Hoke Smith filibuster, conducted in and again assumed its position just outside the three-mile neutrality limit. relief. However, congressional rules cruiser Geier, still moored at Pier 6, machinists recruited from several to go to the senate for agreement, permerchantmen and from local plants hastened the work of replacing worn. be necessary—and with one thing and boiler and engine room.

The Hizen today alone stands guard off the entrance to the harbor. At an is a mystery here why this bill has early hour last evening Honolulu was been held up without action. There electrified by the sensational but entirely unsubstantiated report that nine jection that has never come to the sur- The prosecution objected, and was large battleshipe were steaming along face. And the congressmen of the comthe coast of Oahu and were plainly seen by residents near Kahuku.

The Phantom Fleet.

In addition to the armada of Japanese fighting craft the oft-reported and elusive battleship Kongo was the bill to pass Congress at this ses-rumored as having joined forces with miles off Honolulu. Daylight dispelled the darkness over tion for the next session. the harbor and at the same time the scores of unfounded rumors. The fecting Hawaii have received little nine fighting craft which people consideration at this session of Conon the windward side of the gress. It is generally held that the island would have Honolulans believe absence of Hawaii's delegate during a were nearing this harbor proved to large part of the session is partly rebe inoffensive fishing sampans, the sponsible for the failure of Hawalian operators having provided themselves measures to be given attention at with flare lights to attract the finny Washington. tribe to their nets. Their orderly formation and maneuvers were along a CONGRESS NOW PASSING line of peaceful endeavor.

The Kongo, which for four weeks has been almost daily reported in or

(Continued on page two)

Hawaiian Bills, However, Have Practically No Chance of Action This Session

ONLY NEAR-MIRACLE

CAN SECURE ACTION Filibuster Keeps Lawmakers in Session But Local Affairs

Aren't Considered [Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 23. -Congress has not yet adjourned. Many obtain a quorum.

Congress is about to adjourn with sit franchise bill.

ing bill will get some sort of consid- counsel. eration, but it is realized that the

is dead for this session. erection of a building, all under the here.

discretion of the secretary of the McCarn and McBride took a brief was stricken from the "unanimous con-sent" calendar, then put on again, but McCarn referred to. at the foot of a long list of measures. Rough on Lightfoot.

The district attorney then asked Moso that, as the Washington corresponaction at this session.

It would be a near-miracle if the bill should pass now. Latest reports are that Congress has been kept in session today because of steamed from a southerly direction the senate on behalf of the southern cotton growers who want government Activity on board the little German are such that it is very doubtful if the federal building bill will be reached was apparent as a small company of and passed. It would probably have haps a conference committee would out and damaged material in the another, it stands a very slim chance of passing.

The Rapid Transit bill is still in the house committee on territories. It has seemed some undercurrent of obmittee have had few meetings and fewer quorums. At any rate, the bill has slumbered in committee. The Rapid Transit Company did not expect the Hizen and taken its position some in the house, which would have put the bill in a strong "strategic" posi-

Several other important measures af-

HAS ENACTED GOOD DEAL

Defendant Inquires Into Witness' Past. Which Results in an Exchange of Caustic Courtesies; McBride Brands McCarn as Being "Disgusting" When Trying a Case

Caustic words exchanged by Jeff McCarn and Claudius McBride, and sharp verbal tilta between counsel for the defense and prosecution, punctuof the members are absent election- ated at frequent intervals the retrial eering and neither house is able to of the United States district attorney which was continued before Judge William L. Whitney this morning.

The greater part of the morning was given over to the examination of measures not acted upon-the federal Bride, who swore out the warrant for building and site and the Rapid Tran- McCarn's arrest following the "affair" in the federal building. The examina-Up to the last moment hopes will tion was conducted by Mr. McCarn. be entertained that the federal build- who still is acting as his own chief McBride was recalled to the stand Rapid Transit franchise extension bill for further cross-examination by Mc-Carn. The district attorney question The federal building bill passed the ed the witness at some length regard Senate with a fat appropriation for ing his legal activities locally, and the treasury. Action in the House was trip up to Alaska, where the latter expected many weeks ago, but for one at one time was a court reporter and cause or another, all of which have attorney. A volume of questions was been explained and discussed here at propounded by the district attorney relength, the House has not acted. Fin- garding certain graft matters there, ally one congressman got angry at an- and one Judge Noyes who was im other and has since effectively block- peached. McBride denied emphaticaled further consideration of the bill. It ly that he had snything to do with dent of the Star-Bulletin observed, Bride if, at the time he was secrethere was practically no chance for tary to Governor Frear, he did not offer to settle a certain Japanese matter for Attorney Joseph Lightfoot for a fee of $10,000.

> "I did not know Joe Lightfoot at that time except by his very bad repu-tation," said McPride. Later, he said: Does anyone think that Joe Lightfoot would refuse to enter into a crook-

Mr. McCarn at this juncture pressed the witness regarding his interest the trial. He asked the witness if he did not have a conversation with W P. Fennell about July 15, in which he said that he (McBride) would drop the prosecution if McCarn would leave the country. This called for objection by the prosecution, and the matter was argued at some length.

McCarn Claims Conspiracy.
McCarn said that McBride and Max Dissier had entered into a consultacy, and that he intended to show this. overruled. McCarn asked McBride

(Continued on page three)

Exports Jump Thousand Per Cent Since Opening of Panama Cana

IMPORTANT LEGISLATION [Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.]